RALEIGH, N. C., DECEMBER 23, 1862. NO. 35.

PETER MALLETT,
Colonel Commanding.

ASSISTANT INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, Nov. 21, 1862.

General Order,
No. 19.

I. THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, by the proclamation of the recent Act of Congress, all persons between the ages of 18 and 45 years, during the war, the Commandant Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under this law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

II. The enemy are pressing upon us in great numbers, with the intention to overwhelm us by a winter campaign. Our danger now comes from the South side of James river, and as the scene of war approaches nearer to our borders, it becomes North Carolinians do not crush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have at other times, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying off all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not overstay his furlough unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will shirk (at home) whilst his braver comrades endure the heat and burdens of the fight.

By order of Governor VANCE:

Camp Holmes, Nov. 24, 1862.
General Orders,
No. 1.

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIments are required to transmit all papers referred to in the proclamation of the 21st instant to the Governor of this State, dated "the 21st day of November, 1862, and enroll the names.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct such Conscripts not having received certificates of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 10th of December, the day set apart for assembling, and must join companies which report in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; decisions adverse to such applications having cause to nothing duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be enrolled and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 45, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties, and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 19.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

THE FIGHT AT MUDDY BRIDGE.

Goldsboro' Dec. 16.

The wounded continue to come in from the fight at the bridge. Holcomb's Legion, the 17th N. C. and 8th, the 41st and 5th North Carolina, together with Starr's Battery play the leading part. Gen. Pettigrew commanding. He pays a high compliment to Starr's Battery, and was loath to say half the damage would come down if, time the bridge would have been saved. The shelling was rapid and severe. He commenced about 8 o'clock A. M., and continued until dark. About 1 o'clock P. M. the enemy succeeded in setting fire to the bridge, and their artillery changed position from the south bank of the river, when our troops crossed over and the fight again became severe. The gallant 52nd is reported very cordial men. This was the state of affairs at dark last night.

THE BATTLE OF FREDERICKSBURG.

The following is from the last army correspondence of the Inquirer:

It appears from the statement of Yankee prisoners captured during the fight, were asked what the city of Fredericksburg was built of, to which they replied, that it was built of brick. When the question of why it was not burned was asked, they replied that Burnside had given orders that it should not be burned, as he intended to occupy it himself. Before the battle of Fredericksburg a long article appeared in the Northern papers, stating that the property of every description in Fredericksburg was destined to satisfy a black revengeful spirit, and scattering them through the country, with a bayonet in one hand and a torch in the other.

WHAT HAVE THE YANKEES DONE?

We have before us a letter from a lady in Fredericksburg, which we have not room to publish in full, but from its contents we are able to state positively that the Yankees have not burned the town, as reported by the Northern papers. The following is an illustration of the manner in which our citizens were treated by the Yankees. Nearly all of the valuables which the lady had were given to the hands. The poor Yankees believe the gold were given to the hands. The poor
